What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S

White streamer—RAIN.
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWO WARMER GROW.
If Black's VENEER—COLDER will be.
Unless Black's shown—no change will be.

period of twenty-four hours, ending at 6 o'clock on Thursday evening.

SLIGHTLY THAT WAY.

He loved a maid.
He loved her well;
His love for her
Was frequent tell.
He had a friend,
Who loved with him.
A more robust
Style of skin.
He did not think
His friend would care
A penny for
The maiden fair.
And much less thought,
The silly elf,
The maid would care
A penny for him.
Thus confident,
He did not wait,
But popped the question
To her straight.
"Indeed," says she,
"I can't consent."
You see, you're Slightly subsequent."

been granted a pension.

Owingsville is to have another paper, which will be Democratic in politics.

Madison county Prohibitionists will meet September 28th and nominate candidates for county offices. Singing and speaking by both sexes is one of the

A Somerset newspaper says Pulaski county news have laid over a million eggs during the past six months. The Interior Journal says a Lincoln county rooster is laying eggs.

Fully 2,000 people attended the fifty-first annual session of the Davison County Baptist Association. Water, that article of which Baptists are so fond, was so scarce that a carload had to be shipped by rail from Owassboro.

The people of Mt. Olivet will hereafter know when to get in out of the rain.
The Weather Bureau has made preparations to have the approach of a storm or rain telegraphed from the nearest large city, and a man will stand on the coun-thouse steps and yell it out, and everybody in Robertson county will hear it.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

There was a large crowd out to the cemetery yesterday.

James W. Parker and his wife were arrested near Paris for detaining a young girl for immoral purposes. They lived in a wagon. Parker is an ex-convict, and will likely get to go back and finish his trade.

Miss Stella Charles, sister-in-law of Professor Frost, formerly of this city, sang at the M. E. Church in Portsmouth yesterday. She was complimented very highly by a gentleman who heard her.

Conductor Goodman of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, who killed Colonel H. C. Parsons at Clifton Forge, Va., has been convicted of the murder and sentenced to eighteen years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

John Counter, a well known colored character of this city, and who was until recently employed in one of the establishments downtown, died Saturday at his home in the Fifth Ward and was buried yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Rena Robinson, colored, died Friday afternoon of brain fever at her home in the Fifth Ward. Her remains were interred yesterday afternoon, after funeral services conducted by the Rev. Alexander McDade. She leaves a babe only eight months old.

The Enquirer Household Cooking Club passed down yesterday afternoon over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad on a special train, consisting of eight sleepers, a dining car and a baggage car, returning from their trip to Old Point Comfort.

The Bulletin's excursion to Oligonunk was a phiz. The Bulletin's staff is composed of an officer in one of the churches here, one a very good member of another and one on the fence. And we are of the opinion that it was a fitting rebuke to them. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," and the next time run your excursion on a week day and it'll be a success.

The many friends of Mr. Thomas Gull foyle will be sorry to learn of his illness at his home on East Third street. Several days ago he wore a pair of black half-boots, and upon taking them off to change his leg was full of spots. He put on another pair of the same kind and now the physicians say he has something like blood poisoning. We hope it will not result seriously.

There came very near being a serious smashup Saturday evening in front of Martin Brothers' store. A young man, accompanied by two young ladies, drove up, got some soda water, and then the young man was in the store the horse took fright, wheeling around suddenly, and came very near throwing the two young ladies out. Fortunately no one was hurt, save the young man, who ran out and caught the horse, and in so doing

A BOLD ONE

Was the Attempt to Wreck C. and O. Train No. 4.

Saturday night as C. and O. train No. 4 was on its way East, and when about one mile this side of Augusta, the engine struck an obstruction on the track.

On examination it was found to be a crosstie, evidently placed there by some one with the intention of wrecking the train, we suppose, and secure a valuable haul from the passengers.

The only damage done was to the cow-catcher of the engine, which was slightly battered, and the shackle-bar gone.

This kind of business should be rigidly looked into, and the guilty parties, when caught, should be given what Marshall Boston got at Frankfort.

On that train Saturday night were some ten or twelve Maysville people, and beside these about 150 other passengers, and had the train been wrecked there's no telling how many lives would have been lost.

William Archdeacon now occupies one of the handsome new residences on Lee street of Mr. John A. Newell's.

TWO GAMES SATURDAY.

One at Germantown and the Other at Murphysville.

The "Never Swets" a baseball club from this city, went to Germantown to play a game of ball Saturday, while another nine went to Murphysville to do likewise.

The Never Swets had a good time —hunting for the ball. They were beaten by a fodder team of Germantown by a fodder team by the mere scratch of 48 to 5, and the Germantowns didn't play ball either.

And the picked nine was even worse.
The Murphysvilles secured 60 runs in nine innings and our boys got 2.

Well, this is old-time ball playing, and we must congratulate the boys on their good playing. They did well!

Coming home the Never Swets met with quite an accident, and all came very near having to walk home after doing so much running. Their horses took fright and ran into a fence, pulling out three panels of the fence and bruising several of the boys considerably.

Frank Reeves and family, who were charged with the murder of Leander Coffe at Greenup, were discharged at the examining trial for lack of evidence.

NEVER READ THE PAPERS.

And Consequently They Didn't Know
"Squire Beasley Was Dead."

Friday night about 12 o'clock a couple from Wolfe county, James Sillicon and Miss Sallie Rogers, were coming toward this city on the Mt. Sterling Turnpike, and when near a farmhouse about three miles the other side of Lewisburg the young lady got out of the buggy and the fellow drove on.

She stopped at the house and asked to stay over night and was accommodated.

While there she told the people that she had eloped from home with Sillicon to go to Aberdeen to get married by "Squire Beasley, and on the way down a quarrel arose, when the fellow stopped the buggy and ordered her to get out, which she did.

The next morning, however, Sillicon appeared at the farmhouse, and Sallie, upon seeing him, at once buried the hatchet, and he, with tears in his eyes, asked her pardon, which was granted, and the two went into the buggy and started back for Wolfe county, where they were married.

This only goes to show these people never take a paper, and how did they know "Squire Beasley was dead?"

A FEW CHANGES

In the Next Delegation to Washington From This State.

The result thus far shows that there will be almost a complete change in the Kentucky Congressional delegation this fall.

Up to this time four new Congressmen out of eleven have been chosen by the Democrats.

They are as follows:
John K. Hendricks in the First, to succeed W. J. Stone.

Murray in the Third to succeed Goodnight.

John D. Clardy in the Second to succeed W. T. Ellis.

Rolla K. Hart in the Ninth to succeed Thomas H. Paynter.

Sliss Adams, the Republican Congressman in the Eleventh, is almost certain of defeat at the hands of David G. Colson, the Pineville banker.

Joe Kendall in the Tenth will doubtless be the successor of W. M. Beckner, who was chosen after the death of the late Congressman Lisle.

It is not certain of re-election, and neither is Breckinridge in the Seventh.

Congressman Montgomery was renominated in the Fourth after a bitter struggle.

McCrary in the Eighth is not sure of re-election, and Caruth in the Fifth is in the same fix.

It looks as if three, and maybe more, of the present Congressmen from this state will not be there after March 4th next.

Such a complete change never before occurred in Kentucky at one time as this one is going to be.

The Emma Warren Theater Co., which numbers twenty people, will be the best popular-priced attraction that has been in the Washington Opera-house for some time. The orchestra is said to be a special feature, which consists of eight musicians, and as our people love good music it will be the means of drawing good houses. The company gives lady tickets for tonight, which can be reserved at Nelson's.
